

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

The Virginia HUD field office is pleased to announce the following training:

THE HUD CONTINUUM OF CARE FOR RURAL AREAS: HOW TO ACCESS RESOURCES FOR HOMELESS PEOPLE IN YOUR COMMUNITY

This training will cover the following topics:

- Homeless Issues in Your Community and Strategies and Resources to Assist this Population
- Project Profiles of Housing Programs Developed with HUD Funds
- Review of HUD Funding Available to Serve Homeless People
 - Definition and Overview of the HUD Continuum of Care Programs
 - Types of Housing Programs that can be Funded through the HUD CofC
 - Review of Each Community's Pro Rata Allocation of HUD CofC Funds
 - Advantages of Combining Communities to Form a Continuum of Care
 - Other Federal Resources to Serve Homeless People
- Getting Started: How to Create a Continuum of Care
- Overcoming Obstacles and Roadblocks to Creating a Continuum of Care
- Brief Overview of the Requirements for the Continuum of Care Process and Application

Date: Thursday, April 22, 2004

Time: 9:00 am – 4:30 pm

Roanoke Higher Education Center
108 North Jefferson Street, Suite 403
Roanoke, VA 24016

See Directions on following page

If you should have any questions or comments regarding the training:

Please contact: Leroy Brown
Virginia HUD Field Office
(800) 842-2610 ext. 3766
(804) 771-2100 ext. 3766

To Register:

Please contact: Frances Robinson
(804) 371-7100
frances.robinson@dhcd.virginia.gov

This training will be presented by CUCS under a contract with the Virginia HUD field office